

In the days following your intergenerational ministry opportunity, use the following assessment to reflect on the event. You may also benefit from sending this form or an adapted version to members of your Vision Team who participated in the event.

1- Disagree 2 – Somewhat Disagree 3- Neutral 4- Somewhat Agree 5- Strongly Agree

1. Overall, our event can be considered successful; we accomplished our purpose.
1 2 3 4 5
2. Our preparation for the event was apparent and beneficial for the community as a whole.
1 2 3 4 5
3. Adults were adequately prepared to participate in an intergenerational event.
1 2 3 4 5
4. Children were adequately prepared to participate in an intergenerational event.
1 2 3 4 5
5. Leaders were thoughtfully prepared to lead this event.
1 2 3 4 5
6. Preparation work and time for this event felt reasonable.
1 2 3 4 5
7. Most children and adults remained engaged most of the time.
1 2 3 4 5
8. Overall, our community felt positive about this event.
1 2 3 4 5
9. We are likely to do something again in the future.
1 2 3 4 5
10. We will need to make significant adjustments to do something like this in the future.
1 2 3 4 5

Other notes concerning this event or other future events: